THIS MONTH:

THE MIZ'S MOUTH

✖ "People say they don't want to hear me speak, but they really do. That's why my mouth is the most valuable asset in WWE. It's more valuable than Cena's red shirts. More valuable than The Rock's 'electrifying' personality. It's the money-maker. Now—as for the mouth itself... I brush three times a day with Crest Extra Whitening, and, at live events I usually wear a mouth guard, which I also wear at night. I don't want to chip my straight, perfect white teeth."
